

TITAN

| 100

"The Titan 100 platform has allowed me to expand my leadership network and learn from others. It's a special kinship with colleagues who value their teams, clients, vendors, and people they serve. The recognition serves an ongoing responsibility and reminder for me to always lead with empathy, kindness, and openness."

Pat Coleman

Vice President of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion | Alberici

"The connections made within the Titans has been the greatest of value for me. Being a business leader can be a lonely place. With the community of Titans, I am thankful to be surrounded by successful business leaders willing to share their successes and struggles."

Matthew Mabie

President | Knoebel Construction, Inc.

"Being a Titan was a great honor. The recognition aligned me with many colleagues in the region with whom I am already familiar, but also allowed me to learn about many more. The response I received from my networks regarding the recognition was incredibly positive and a new and exciting way to be celebrated in business culture."

Mike LaMartina

COO | Ballpark Village

"The acknowledgment to me actually sparked a greater sense of responsibility and accountability to other business owners in the region. Each team member I have helps support five jobs in the community outside our company. We need a healthy business community!"

Jim Maher

CEO & Founder | Archford Capital

TITAN

| 100

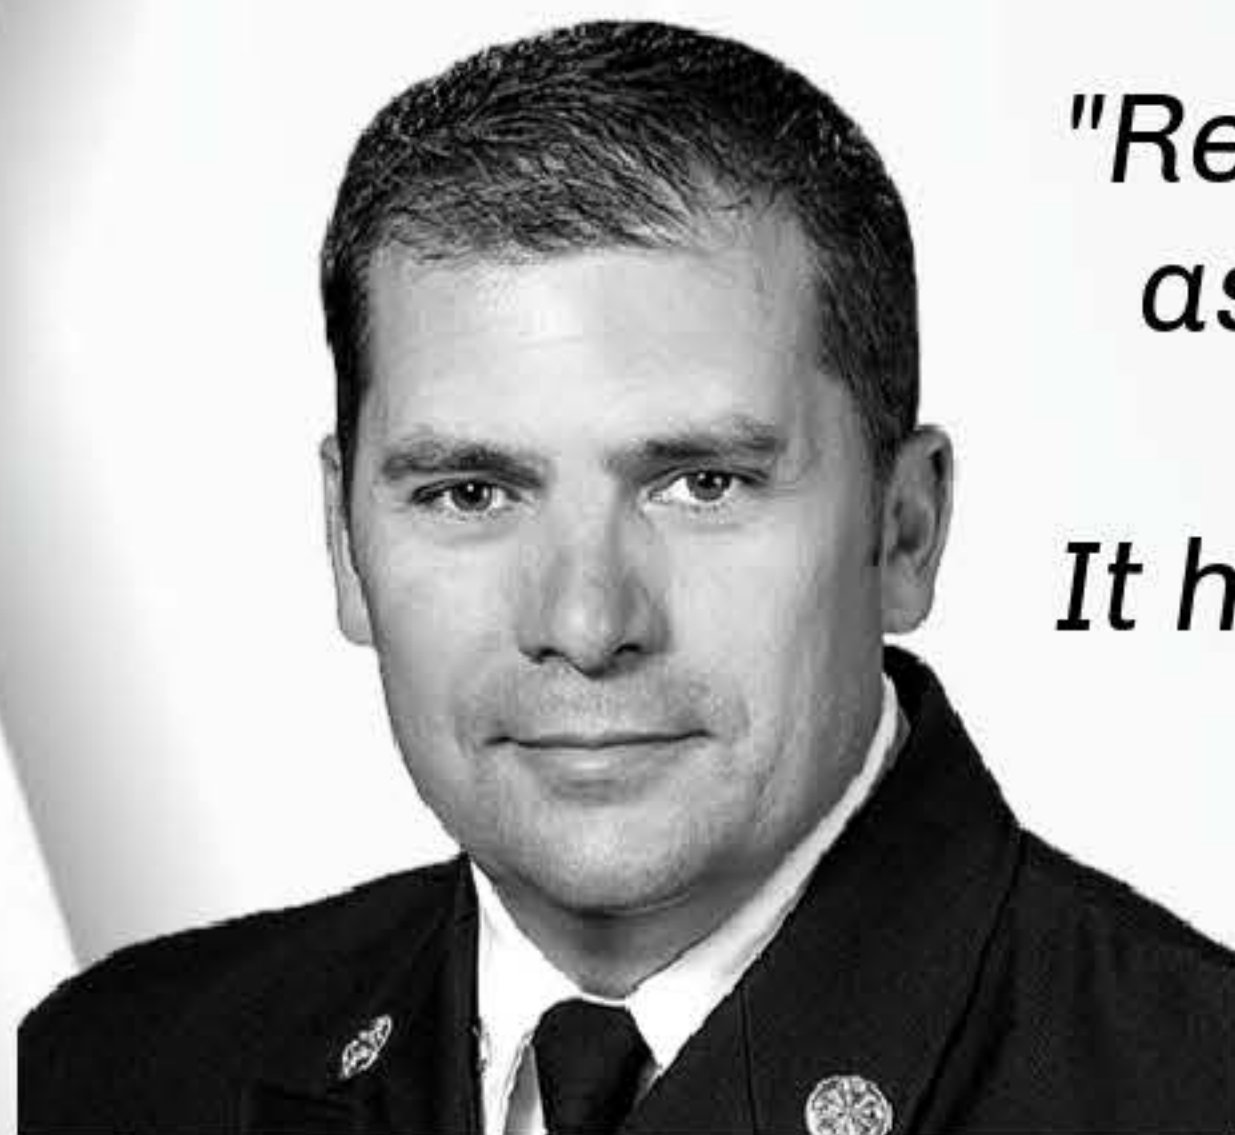

"Being recognized as a Titan has served as a source of inspiration and has fueled my ambition to reach new heights and achieve greater success in the coming year. The outstanding achievements and exceptional leadership displayed by my fellow Titans is remarkable."

Amy Nash
President | Nash Properties, LLC

"Being recognized as a Titan 100 holds significance for me, serving as a testament to the dedication and impact of my work. This acknowledgment is not only a personal achievement but a validation of the collective efforts of my team and the organization. It reinforces a sense of accomplishment and motivates me to continue striving for excellence."

Michael Steinmann
President & CEO | HITS Corporation

"Recognition at a Titan is a prestigious honor that distinguishes me as a champion of my industry. It has provided me with a support group and has fostered my growth as a leader. It has provided me with further opportunities to explore leadership qualities and traits that have enhanced my abilities."

Jim Silvernail
Fire Chief | City of Kirkwood

"Joining the Titan 100 Board of Directors has been incredibly rewarding. The opportunity to network with people I might not have otherwise met has been tremendous. I believe we can all help each other as Titans and I am honored to be considered as a Titan for a second year."

Carmen Fronczak
Chief Revenue Officer | Friendship Village Senior Services

TITAN

| 1000

"I am honored to be recognized among this incredible peer group of Titans. It provides validation for my hard work and contributions to the industry, the team and community at large. I have loved the opportunity to connect with fellow Titans in the region and looks forward to more opportunities ahead."

Melissa Lackey
President | Standing Partnership

"It has been an honor to be recognized alongside so many great business leaders in our region. That has also been the greatest value to me of the platform. Hearing from contemporaries about how they are growing their organizations and overcoming obstacles is both instructive and inspiring."

Linda Haberstroh
President | Phoenix Textile Corporation

"This is more than award to me. It is a sign of the impact I am having on my businesses and my impact on the community. Running a successful business is important, but the positive impact you have on so many lives in running a company is huge. I think as business owners we get caught up in the hustle and bustle of growing a business. This award is a time to finally pause and reflect on the true impact of being a Titan."

Gary Wood
Co-Founder & COO | PV Ventures

" For me, the greatest value of the Titan platform is the opportunity to connect and expand my network with remarkable leaders from diverse industries, learning from their unique backgrounds and what drives them."

Lindsay Gross
COO | nimble solutions