It's a true honor to be part of the Colorado Titans. While I have had schedule challenges last fall and was unable to attend several Titan events, the two events I recently attended were fantastic. I quickly connected with several CEOs and executives and was so impressed with their openness, friendliness and passion for their company's mission. Thus far, I have found the greatest value in the platform from the one-to-one conversations I have had at the events. I also embrace Tital 100's commitment to social wellbeing as demonstrated by the volunteering available as a Titan.
