

Philadelphia Testimonials

Kristin DeBias | Co-Founder
President, Energetek

Being a Titan has opened so many doors for me both personally and professionally. Personally, being acknowledged as an industry leader was a surreal experience. It is extremely easy to go through day to day life without recognizing your own achievements. You simply move onto the "next thing." It was important for me to sit back and acknowledge that I have a seat at the table. Professionally, being a Titan has opened the doors to a network I would have never had otherwise. The online portal that acts as a nexus between cities across the country allows us all to continue towards expanding our horizons. I hope to continue to cultivate these relationships and hopefully form new ones as a Titan alumni.

Beyond the practical takeaways, the Titan 100 program has also been an invaluable source of inspiration. It has reinforced the importance of continuous learning, adaptability, and collaboration in leadership. By interacting with leaders who bring diverse perspectives and experiences, I've been able to challenge my own assumptions and expand my approach to problem-solving. The program has not only strengthened my leadership skills but also broadened my network, opening doors to new opportunities and collaborations.

Marcus Allen | CEO, Big Brothers Big Sisters Independence

Being part of Titan 100 is not about recognition—it is about being part of a movement of leaders who are shaping the future with purpose, vision, and accountability. It has been a privilege and a challenge, pushing me to think bigger, lead with clarity, and ensure that the work I do today creates lasting change for tomorrow.

It has been so humbling to be a part of this thriving and inspirational community. There is so much to value, but I think the exposure to quality, innovative minds who are changing the fabric of the Greater Philadelphia business community is a unique opportunity you cannot find elsewhere. As an even larger blessing, we also have access to fellow Titans in other markets to expand our views and our businesses. I cannot say enough about this community and what it has meant for me.
